

TEXT 1 (AUDIO) MY BIRTHDAY PARTY

Tomorrow I'm going to celebrate my birthday party with all my family and my best friends. I will be finally twelve years old, and I'm so happy to be in the last year of school.

The party will take place in a restaurant near my house called Beep Burger at half past six. There, you can eat five different types of hamburgers and two different types of pizzas. My favourite hamburger is the cheeseburger with salad, one slice of tomato and mayonnaise. Also, I like cheese and bacon pizza but I don't like the pepperoni one.

At the restaurant there is a playground area where we can play different games and a big swimming pool. There will be also a karaoke with a lot of songs.

I will receive lots of presents and we will have fun! Please, do not forget to bring your swimsuit and a towel. See you tomorrow!
